

MT. HEALTHY ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Athletic Hall of Fame Induction

Each year the Athletic Department at Mt. Healthy High School recognizes Mt. Healthy athletes, coaches or booster members by inducting them into the Owls' Athletic Hall of Fame. Association with the Owls Athletic program as an athlete, coach or booster is required for induction eligibility. Nominees do not have to reside in the community. The Athletic Department will accept nominations through Aug. 1 of each year. Inductees will be honored in the fall during a home football game.

Remember the following criteria when nominating:

1. To recognize deserving individuals.
2. To provide a role model for our present students.
3. To highlight the relationship between athletics and the individual at Mt. Healthy High School.

Nominations and Eligibility:

1. Any person involved with the the athletic programs or athletic department at Mt. Healthy High School is eligible for induction in the Hall of Fame.
2. The nominee must have graduated or completed service at least five years prior to date of induction.
3. Primary consideration will be given to athletic contributions at Mt. Healthy High School with secondary considerations given to post graduate achievements, athletic and non-athletic.
4. Nominees need not have had outstanding high school academic records nor is college attendance a requirement.
5. Mt. Healthy High School graduation is required for athletes nominated.
